ABOUT

Code for Australia is a Melbourne based initiative aimed at making our cities interactive, our government to speak for its citizens, and to be able to create collective change through our fingertips.

PROBLEM

We put our heart and soul into discovering the issues that effects us the most.

IDEA

We believe that design isn't just visual, it is how we respond to the issue at hand.

SOLUTION

We go to great lengths to make sure the idea works in the real world.
